CONCEPT NOTE:

Humanities and Social Sciences is a developing and extending field throughout the entire existence of human civilization that massively contributes in profoundly shaping human ideas alongside literature.

Feminism underwrites equality as well as equity. It emphasizes empowerment and social justice for all. The comprehensive vision of feminism urges an upgrading of strategy framework through individuals' interest for civil rights. This requires destroying stereotypical regulated connections to dispense with sexism, casteism, inequity, communalism, regionalism and some such "isms" which are oppressive to all. Women's studies as a discipline doesn't expect to destroy male centric society to set up matriarchy, however tries to lay out a gender ambiguous society in view of inclusivity and agreement.

This book is a drive to bring to surface the viewpoints and voices of the people who have encountered marginalization and its different signs in their lives. In this scenery, this book taking on a multifaceted viewpoint, aims on trade of thoughts and contemplations for a conceivable answer for a plausible solution for combination and consideration of the oppressed, helpless and distraught.
