RGNUL is currently emphasizing on research, training and consultancy in various areas of contemporary interest. It envisages to be a research-intensive university in the times to come. It has as many as 19 centers focusing on various areas of social-legal inquiries which includes the Centre for Business Law and Taxation (CBLT). RGNUL publishes 05 journals covering a vast range of subjects of topical interest.

Workshop on Intellectual Property Rights and the Youth: Innovating for a Better Future

This year the World Intellectual Property Day (WIPD) on April 26th has commemorated, awareness is raised about the vital role that IP rights play in fostering new ideas and inventive solutions. World Intellectual Property 2022 recognizes the huge potential of young people to find new and better solutions that supports the transition to a sustainable future. Across the globe, young people are stepping up to innovation challenges, using their energy and ingenuity, curiosity and creativity to steer a course towards a better future. Innovative, energetic and creative minds are helping to drive the changes we need to move to a more sustainable future.

Young people can learn how intellectual property rights can help them achieve their goals, turn ideas into reality, generate income and create jobs. Today's youngsters represent a tremendously creative and innovative resource that has yet to be fully realized. Rethinking the way things are done is already taking place thanks to their new ideas and "can-do" attitude as well as their desire to see a brighter future.

As IP and Youth: "Innovating for a Better Future" is the theme of this year's World Intellectual Property Day, which promotes youth-led innovation and creativity. In this backdrop, we, at RGNUL, Patiala are conducting workshop on Intellectual Property Rights and the Youth: Innovating for a Better Future.
