About the College

The Central Law College, Salem is recognized by The Bar Council of India, New Delhi and originally affiliated to University of Madras and later with The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Chennai. The institution is a reputed and prestigious institution conducting both Five years B.A.LL.B, Three years LL.B Law Course and LL.M in the State of Tamil Nadu since 1984, founded by Prof. R. V. Dhanapalan. The college celebrated its Silver Jubilee in the year 2009, well known for its Legal Education and aims to introduce the students to the basic concepts of law and enrich them with knowledge and experience with the aim to shape them to take up the Legal Profession with Dignity.

The institution is located at the foothills of Yercaud at Salem in Tamil Nadu, with State-of-the-art amenities. The academic block is designed with architectural elegance and provides students with modern facilities. The students have access to modern technology for research and study purposes. They have access to e-library, which also provides them a vast range of study material. The college has an exclusive and exhaustive legal library with Law Books written by eminent Authors, Law Journals and Online Law Journals.

Main theme of the Conference

The media plays a crucial role in shaping public opinion, disseminating information, and holding power accountable. It has long been referred to as the “Fourth Pillar” of democracy. However, for the media to fulfill its role effectively, it must maintain its independence and adherence to ethical standards. In recent times, the media landscape has witnessed significant changes with the advent of digital platforms, social media and new technologies. The theme mainly focuses on to bring foster discussions, debates, and insights into various aspects of media, including its ethical standards, influence on public discourse, challenges posed by misinformation, and the evolving relationship between media and technology. By focusing on introspection, the conference seeks to promote a deeper understanding of the media’s impact and responsibilities while exploring ways to enhance its credibility, integrity, and positive contribution to society.

In light of this stance, The Central Law College, Salem organizes National Conference on the theme “Media – The Fourth Pillar: Need for Introspection” on 14th October, 2023. There are various sub-themes with reference to the main theme that explores the vast areas of research. The Conference aims to bring together media professionals, legal experts, academicians and scholars, policymakers, students, and stakeholders to engage in critical discussions about the current state of media, its challenges, and the path forward.
