About the competition

JLU–Centre for Research on Intellectual Property and Advocacy (CRIPA) at Faculty of Law, Jagran Lakecity University is established with the primary goal of broadening the knowledge base and enhancing research and advocacy skills of law students in the field of intellectual property rights and related domains. Considering the broad ambit of IPR, the Centre firstly, targets to encourage synthesis of knowledge and best practices cutting across academia, practitioners and research fraternity. Secondly, the Centre aims to raise public awareness about intellectual property rights. Thirdly, CRIPA attempts to trace and map dynamically expanding dimensions of intellectual property in addition to exploring the intersection points, if any, between Intellectual Property and emerging areas of laws such as technology law. Inter alia, Centre also targets to conduct socially helpful researches in the field of intellectual property rights.

The National Essay Writing Competition is a platform for students from various disciplines through which CRIPA aims to promote research and writing and to critically evaluate the contemporary issues in the realm of Intellectual Property.
