ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

PURPOSE

The conference aims to bring together academics, legal professionals, activists, policymakers, and stakeholders to engage in discussions and shape the future of gender and human rights law. It seeks to critically analyze existing legal frameworks, identify gaps, and propose strategies for more effective implementation. Additionally, it aims to address emerging issues such as technology, climate change, and migration's impact on vulnerable populations.

FOCUS AREAS

The conference will focus on the complex intersections between gender and human rights law, examining how these two areas overlap and interact. Discussions will revolve around the protection and promotion of gender equality and human rights within the legal context. The event will also showcase successful strategies and campaigns from various regions and legal traditions that have advanced gender equality and human rights.

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

The conference will provide a global platform, featuring perspectives and case studies from diverse regions and legal traditions. It recognizes the importance of civil society and advocacy in driving positive change in these areas, fostering a global dialogue on gender and human rights and offering practical insights and inspiration to participants.

CENTER FOR GENDER STUDIES

The center aims to foster research and academic discussions pertaining to gender stereotypes and discrimination. It is committed to raising awareness and improving access to justice in the context of gender related issues. The establishment of the Center for Gender Studies is crucial for gender sensitization in our college and through the college, to us. The Center aims to engage with both faculty and students, striving to create a gender-aware community on campus and beyond. The Center envisions arrange diverse academic, technical, medical, cultural, and social events to empower vulnerable groups and promote gender equality in society. While promoting academic research in the area of gender studies by undertaking research projects, the Center aims to collaborate with national and international organizations and researchers in the field of gender studies and related areas.
