About PGCL

SVKM's Pravin Gandhi College of Law (PGCL) is situated in Vile Parle, Mumbai. PGCL works under the auspices of Mumbai University providing B.A LL.B Course (5 Years). The institution recognises the fact that there lodges within the heart of every student a spark of creativity, which is the essence of singularity in every individual.

About Criminal Law Forum

The 'Criminal Law Forum' at Pravin Gandhi College of Law, Mumbai has been set up with the objective of promoting research, training, policy analysis and consultancy in the field of Criminal Justice, Criminal Law, Criminology and Victimology. The Centre looks forward to engage in intensive research around the prevalent topics and to thrive to come up with good research papers and blogs eligible to be printed in Law Journals. The forum also looks forward to give solutions to facilitate victim friendly prosecution and victim justice. The Centre regularly conducts workshops, seminars, training programs, conferences and symposiums on the above-mentioned subject areas.

About the Event

The National Seminar on "Criminal Law and the Criminal Justice System - Contemporary Challenges" is a thought-provoking event bringing together, experts and enthusiasts to explore the dynamic shifts in the field of criminal law. The national seminar is featuring discussion on the three pivotal bills aimed at amending the Indian Penal Code (IPC), the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC), and the Indian Evidence Act. With the legal scholars, practitioners and policymakers from across the country, this seminar offers a platform to deliberate on the amendments potential impact on the criminal justice system. Seminar is a significant event that fostered a deeper understanding of how these bills are poised to shape the future of criminal law in India. All the dignitaries, field experts and policy advisors have been kind enough to accept our invitation.

About the Indian Society for Criminology (ISC)

The Indian Society of Criminology (ISC) was established in the year 1970, with the objectives of advancing the study and application of Criminology and Allied Sciences, for the welfare of the society. It also endeavoured to facilitate cooperation among persons interested in the prevention and control of crime, which has escalated over time. Over a short span, the ISC developed into a pioneering National organisation, due to the cumulative efforts of its dedicated founders. The society was initiated by professionals, namely, Professor T. E. Shanmugam; Mr. Pitchandi; Justice V. R. Krishna Iyer; Mr. Pon Paramaguru, IPS; Professor K. Chockalingam; and Mr. K. Mani. Lately, this enterprise has extended and decided to promote Criminological education and advanced Research in the area of Criminology, and it is in this spirit that the Indian Society of Criminology (ISC) organises an International Conference every year, at different locations. A platform that has now become a major attraction for budding Criminologists, to shape their thinking and invite interest towards the interdisciplinary field of Criminology.
