About the conference

The International Conference on "Redefining Business and Managerial Practices for Sustainable Growth: A Global Perspective" being organized by R & D Board and IQAC Cell RDIAS in collaboration with USMS and IQAC Cell GGSIPU. This Conference revolves around the idea of reshaping the way businesses and managers operate to achieve sustainable growth in a global context. This conference is a dynamic platform that brings together experts, thought leaders, and practitioners from diverse fields to explore the transformative potential of the digital era in reshaping business and managerial practices for sustainable growth. With a keen focus on sustainability, the conference aims to unravel how digital technologies can be harnessed not only to drive economic prosperity but also to address pressing global challenges. Through insightful presentations, engaging workshops, and multidimensional discussions, attendees will uncover innovative strategies that merge technology advancements with sustainable practices. By bridging the gap between innovation and responsible conduct, the conference seeks to sculpt a digital landscape that propels growth while upholding ethical considerations and environmental stewardship.
