

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

International Arbitration Group

Internships, Paris office

We are accepting applications for internships of six months commencing in July 2024.

We welcome applications from outstanding undergraduate and postgraduate students in law, as well as those who have already graduated. English is the only language of which mastery is a pre-requisite, although fluency in other languages, especially Arabic, French, German, Mandarin, Portuguese, Russian or Spanish, would be an advantage.

An internship in the Freshfields arbitration group would expose you to a wide range of cross-border work, including some of the most complex and interesting international disputes currently subject to arbitration.

Internships are our preferred method of recruiting junior associates. More than half of our associates started with us as interns.

To apply, please submit a letter of application and a curriculum vitae that includes a summary of your university results, neither exceeding one page in length before Wednesday, 1 November 2023.

Please apply via our recruitment website at:
