The diversity and flexibility of options of courses to choose from are aimed at enabling students to pursue studies most suited to their intellect and talent. MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDER

LATE SHRI VINOD KUMAR GOMBER FOUNDER CHAIRPERSON

Raffles University was founded by Late Shri Vinod Kumar Gomber, an alumnus of Harvard Business School, a towering human being gifted with compassion and ethics, and the will to impart holistic, value-based education, to the youth of this nation and beyond. He led the EMAAR Group, Dubai, as the CEO of Worldwide Infrastructure Operations.

His message to the youth was: -

"Be inspired, broaden your horizons, aim for excellence and achieve all your dreams."
- Vinod Kumar Gomber

Shri Gomber created Raffles in the model of a "Gurukula" with the aim of imparting holistic education, not only to enable "employability" but to provide knowledge to a person to find his identity and the meaning and purpose in life. He was also a fervent believer in spiritual values with a desire to connect to nature and the community. The noble impulses within Shri Vinod Kumar Gomber were so assertive and awakened that, despite his elevated global status, he had the infinite humility to state that "We have simply received our blessings by being in the right place at the right time. We are then custodians of the financial resources that have been bestowed upon us and, as such, we should deploy them for the benefit of mankind to the best of our ability"... "Our mission is to share".

Raffles University imbibes and imparts these values through its excellent education system and state-of-the-art infrastructure. Shri Vinod Kumar Gomber was one of the few stalwarts of our world who has gifted to us an enduring and timeless legacy which future generations can cherish.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRPERSON GOMBER EDUCATION FOUNDATION

DR. JUSTICE MEENA V. GOMBER
FORMER JUDGE - RAJASTHAN HIGH COURT
CHAIRPERSON - GOMBER EDUCATION FOUNDATION
CHIEF PATRON - RAFFLES SCHOOL OF LAW

The modern concept of legal education is to learn by bringing about a proportionate admixture of reading, observation, participation, and practice.

Mooting and Mock Trials have been emphasized by the legal educationalists as capable of inculcating in future lawyers the art of being articulate, developing fluency and clear enunciation of thought bearing, the art of persuasion, and making a succinct and intelligible putting up of a case.

Moots are legal problems in the form of imaginary cases argued by two students or two groups of students acting as counsel for each side with a bench of judges or a bench presided over by a judge.

The purpose achieved by Moots and Mock Trials is beautifully highlighted with a sense of humour by Lewis Carroll in Alice in Wonderland in the following stanza:
"In my youth", said his father, "I took to the law. And argued each case with my wife. And the muscular strength which it gave to my jaw, has lasted the rest of my life."

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT RAFFLES UNIVERSITY

PROF. (DR.) GADANGI INDIRA
PRESIDENT/VICE CHANCELLOR

Universities are working very hard to make higher education meaningful and relevant. Experiments are being done by many Universities, to make their product (graduates) "fit for job" using their strategies. The emphasis is on bringing out competent people who can meet the requirements of the employers. In short, higher education is driven by the job market.

I do believe that universities aim to inculcate confidence, commitment, and concern as basic values in addition to providing knowledge. Raffles University is being established on high ideals with a vision to shape the youth as per the desire of Swami Vivekananda.

Curriculum and pedagogy are designed to blossom the inbuilt capacity of each student.

Scientia est potentia which means "Knowledge is Power" is our dhyeya vakya. We equip, expose, empower and enlighten you to face any challenge in life with confidence, but not compromise on ethical values. I do extend an open-armed welcome to the university and our flagship event. I believe that you will make this competition great.

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN SCHOOL OF LAW

DR. AUSAF AHMAD MALIK
DEAN, SCHOOL OF LAW

The School of Law of Raffles University has been founded with a vision to chisel out the most competent legal professionals who are confident and committed. We equip, expose, enlighten and empower our students to take up any professional challenge with confidence. Students have been exposed to moot Court exercises from the beginning. Participation in moot court competitions outside the school is made compulsory. Two National Level Moot Court Competitions are being organized every year, of which one is in collaboration with the prestigious Surana & Surana International Attorneys and the other one in collaboration with 'Rajasthan Education Trust', a public charitable trust based out of Jaipur.

I am extremely happy and wish all the best to the participants from different law universities/institutions. Our Moot court faculty and student coordinators are doing a commendable job, and their efforts are appreciable, without which organizing such a gala event is not feasible.

My good wishes to the participants! Happy Mooting!

MOOT PROPOSITION

8th C. L. AGRAWAL MEMORIAL
NATIONAL MOOT COURT
COMPETITION, 2024

Date: 8th to 10th March, 2024

Mrigyaniki
v.
Union of India and Ors.

1. Mrigyaniki and Devashya were happily wedded in the year 2005 and were the parents of Kshmika (14 years old daughter) and Amasya (8-year-old Son). For the past 20 years, Devashya was working as the Chief Priest of Vrindvasini Temple of Meharganj state of the Republic of Indonia. On 23rd April 2021, Devashya got infected with a deadly virus and was quarantined for months. Meanwhile, Mrigyaniki took over the position of the Chief Priest of Vrindvasini Temple.

2. On 19th October 2021, Devashya died due to the virus, making Mrigyaniki a young widow. After Devashya's death, Mrigyaniki, went through all the customary rituals prevailing in the village which a widow is bound to do to demonstrate grief and loyalty towards her husband like, shaving off her head, giving up her colourful clothes, jewellery, and her favourite food. The customs also demanded her to walk bare foot all her life, being absent on all auspicious occasions, including marriages and festivals. She was also removed from her position of the Chief Priest of Vrindvasini temple as, according to their customary practice, a widow cannot be a Chief Priest.

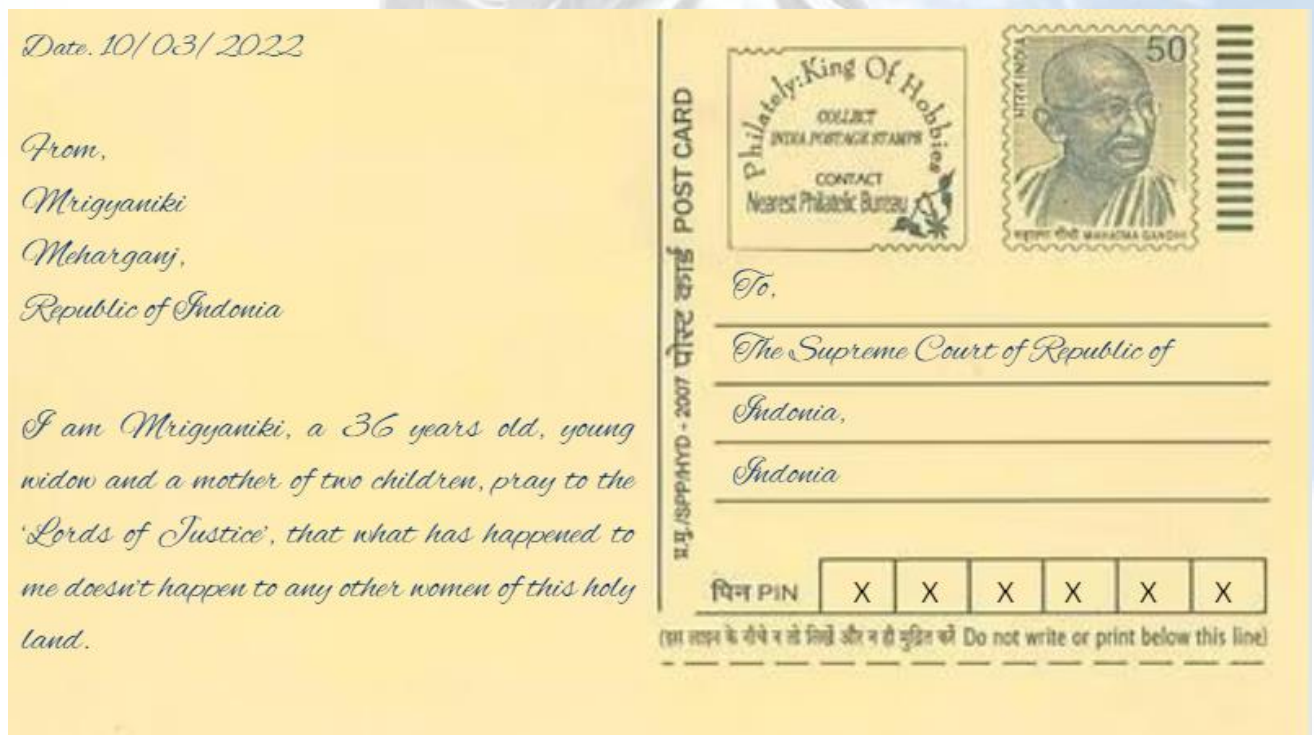

3. On 1st November 2021, the Vrindvasini Temple Trust invited an application for the position of Chief Priest for the Vrindvasini Temple with the following criteria in the notification no. 111/2021-

- i. The Applicant shall be the resident of Meharganj state.
- ii. Shall be a Brahman by birth.
- iii. Shall be well versed with the language of the State.
- iv. Shall be either male or female.
- v. Shall be single, married or a widower but not a widow.

4. Mrigyaniki being a widow, was not eligible to apply for the position of Chief Priest for the Vrindvasini Temple. As Mrigyaniki was the only bread earner of the family, she started searching for an employment in the vicinity of the village, but as she had no educational degrees, she started working as a cook and used to cook at various occasions and festivals. One fine day, on the eve of a local harvest festival, Mrigyaniki was denied by the trustees of Vrindvasini Temple to cook the auspicious first meal of the season (bhog) which is served to the Lord Bhupati, as she was a widow. Mrigyaniki could not believe what happened to her and felt very insulted.

5. Mrigyaniki with other widows of the village decided to go to the Mateshwari temple located nearly 1000km away from Meharganj where usually the widows go to find solace. Mrigyaniki with other widows went to the Dandeshwari Temple thinking it to be Mateshwari temple where they were denied entry by the watchman claiming that the temple allowed only married and unmarried women and widows were strictly prohibited to go inside the temple. The widows protested but were eventually not allowed as it was an age-old custom.

6. Mrigyaniki narrated the entire incident to her children and ultimately with the help of her daughter sent the following postcard to the Apex Court: -

On 19th October 2021, I lost my husband, then my sources of income, then the right to enter the temple and eventually the will to live only because I am a widow. I don't wish to live anymore as the world doesn't treat me as a human anymore that too without any fault. I wish, Sati existed.

I am glad for only two reasons, one is that I still have the right to write this postcard to my lord and secondly, that postcards don't have a marital status. As I am unable to pray to the almighty god at the temples, I pray to my lords, the protectors, for the first and last time that if you're reading this and can do anything for me, please protect the fundamental rights of all the widows of this land, including me, from being violated.

Mrigyaniki

7. The honourable Supreme Court treating the postcard as a writ petition said that the technicalities cannot stop the court from protecting civil liberties of the individuals and took cognizance of the case by framing the following issues-

- I. Whether the termination of a widow from being the Chief Priest of the temple is valid or not?
- II. Whether the exclusion of widows through the notification no. 111/2021 by the Vrindvasini Temple Trust is in violation of fundamental rights under the Constitution of India?
- III. Does widow's exclusion from cooking the bhog amount to violation of fundamental rights under the Constitution of India?
- IV. Whether the act of denying entry to the widows in the temple by the Dandeshwari temple authorities violate the fundamental rights under the Constitution of India?

NOTE-

1. The laws of "Republic of India" are pari materia with the laws of INDIA and the decisions of INDIA are of significant value to the Republic of India. The Apex Court of the Republic of India also relies on the precedents of International Courts and Tribunals.
2. The participants are required to prepare their submissions from each side of the case.
