

Clinical Research Division

at Patanjali Research Foundation, Haridwar, INDIA

Patanjali Research Foundation is a fully integrated innovative research institute to conduct modern experimentation on Ayurvedic medicines for the treatment of various diseases. The Institute has a diversified research portfolio and a substantial clinical testing pipeline. With its R&D centre and headquarter in Haridwar, India, Patanjali also has a mega manufacturing facility, an Ayurvedic hospital and medical college, a University, and herbarium along with herbal garden. Research laboratories at Patanjali are accredited with NABL, DSIR, DBT, NBB, APEDA and have CPCSEA approved animal house along with well-defined IAEC, IBSC and IEC structures. These are probably one-of-the-kind, and literally state-of-the-art facilities to conduct research on Ayurveda. Top of the line equipments and globally trained workforce energizes the research operations, on a daily basis.

Job opportunity for Clinical Research Division!

Job Summary

We are looking for a Clinical research professional, armed with a MBBS, MD (Pharmacology/Biochemistry/Physiology)/PhD background. Someone who has suitable years of experience in industry, preferably in Clinical Research and its management. The ideal candidate would be responsible for designing, implementing, and maintaining clinical trials along with ensuring good clinical practices being followed. The candidate should have experience in drafting protocols, manuscript and other scientific literature, along with demonstrated history of clinical trial management.

Job Responsibilities

- ✓ Creating standards and guidelines for clinical research services and programs
- ✓ Ensuring adherence to standard operating procedures, good clinical practice and regulatory environments.
- ✓ Creating a detailed research protocol that outlines the study's objectives, methodology, and ethical guidelines
- ✓ Overseeing the recruitment of study participants and ensuring that they are properly informed about the study's purpose, procedures, risks, and potential benefits
- ✓ Coordinating and managing appropriate GCP, ICH, CLIA, protocol training for team members
- ✓ Managing all regulatory documentation and correspondence required by sponsor and IRB
- ✓ Managing all planning and execution of oncology clinical trials, including decision impact and companion diagnostic trials.
- ✓ Provide leadership for the clinical research teams
- ✓ Foster a positive and productive work environment
- ✓ Develop and implement the department's research strategy in alignment with organizational goals
- ✓ Stay updated on industry trends, regulations and best practices
- ✓ Ensure ethical conduct in all research activities
- ✓ Candidate should demonstrate high productivity and writing skills with a flair for writing scientific manuscripts and reports as per requirements.

Benefits:

- ✚ Competitive salary and benefits package.
- ✚ Opportunity to work in a dynamic and collaborative research environment.
- ✚ Potential for professional growth and career advancement within the organization.

Patanjali Research Foundation is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate against any applicant because of race, colour, religion, gender, national origin, age and physical disability.

How to Apply

- Write to jobs@patanjali.res.in with your detailed resume, cover letter and career aspirations.
- Mention Clinical Research Division in the subject field of your email.
- List three professional references other than your friends and family.