Nothing can give me the feeling of satisfaction than to see my parents' dream of providing quality education to the masses come true. Their dream to provide one of the best Private Universities to rural India. Their Vision, belief, deeds and activities were all pervasive and wholesome. They were the pillars on which Modi Enterprises had grown and operated. The wholesome development of industry, nationally and internationally, besides promoting social welfare, culture, sports, research, rural development and education. As a mark of homage to both, emulating their glorious remembrance, we have established Dr K N Modi University.
