ABOUT THE NATIONAL SEMINAR

The School of Law at Ramaiah University of Applied Sciences is proud to host a National Seminar titled 'New Criminal Laws: Issues & Trends'.

This seminar offers a unique opportunity for legal professionals, academicians, and policymakers to dissect the nuances of these transformative Acts. Renowned experts will lead interactive sessions, providing a thorough understanding of the key themes introduced. Participants will gain in-depth knowledge of the newly defined offences, sentencing structures, and investigative procedures outlined in the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam. The seminar will explore the paradigm shift in evidence collection and admissibility as governed by the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam.

This interactive forum is not just for legal scholars. Law students and researchers will find this seminar an invaluable learning experience, providing a platform to engage with leading experts and gain a practical understanding of the evolving legal framework. Additionally, policymakers and government officials will benefit from the discussions, fostering informed decision-making as they navigate the implementation and potential future revisions of these pivotal enactments.

The National Seminar on New Criminal Laws is your chance to be at the forefront of this legal transformation. Network with fellow professionals, engage in stimulating discussions, and gain a comprehensive understanding of the new era in Indian criminal justice. Don't miss this opportunity to shape your knowledge and contribute to a more informed legal landscape.

Interdisciplinary approaches to the new Criminal Laws are welcome.
