“Labour Law Enforcement (LLE)”

THERE ARE NO CHARGES FOR THE PUBLICATION

The National Law University Delhi (NLUD), established in 2008 by Act No.1 of 2008 of the National Capital Territory of Delhi, is one of the premier law universities in India. The Centre focuses on sensitising people to transparency and accountability in governance and empowering professionals/functionaries such as students, lawyers, and public officials to contribute effectively to ensure transparency and accountability in governance. It also works towards creating and promoting quality research in transparency and accountability in governance.

Besides publishing the International Journal of Transparency and Accountability in Governance, many books on Good Governance, and the monthly magazine TAG, the Centre has organised more than 10 National and International Events on Combating Corruption and Good Governance. The Centre has also entered MOUs with Transparency International India, the Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) New Delhi, the Commonwealth Human Rights Initiative, NCPRI, and other institutions combating corruption and promoting good governance.

In continuation of the dissemination of original and innovative endeavours in transparency and accountability in governance, the CTAG has decided to publish a book titled “Labour Law Enforcement” with an ISBN, covering the following themes.
