“Advancing Legal Understanding -
Embracing the Three New Criminal Laws”

About the University

The University is destined to grow as a model security educational University of India. Its endeavours focus on highly professional security, strategic and defence education, research and training through its qualified civilian and military faculty, committed human resource, motivated participants and students, intellectually stimulating and professional disciplined environment and world-wide network, sharing and exchange. It aims at providing security and strategic education in the contemporary and futuristic security and strategic studies and interdisciplinary areas.

The University contributes to vision of India of Peace, Prosperous and Stable World in alliance with grand strategic cooperation between like-minded nations and promoting greater understanding between senior military officers, diplomats, civil servants and civilians to promote the cause of the Nation. It adopts a two-tier approach, at the national and international levels, in its education, research and training and extension in order to achieve capabilities to respond to the needs, expectations and aspirations of the security and strategic institutions and forces as well as law-making, governance, judiciary, economy (agriculture-manufacturing-service sectors) and the civil society organisations.

About the School

The School of Criminal Law and Military Law (SCLML) aims to establish itself as a premier legal institution in the domain of Criminal and National Security Laws. It envisions to operate in accordance with global best practices and industry standards of legal education through research, innovation and extension activities for the advancement and dissemination of resourceful knowledge, research, training and scholarship in criminal and security laws.

Its curriculum amalgamates theory with practise, keeping in mind the security needs in a much more globalized world. The School is also committed to the cause of furthering public safety as well as facilitating access to justice by offering Pro Bono legal aid services with a view to developing human capital with the highest ideals of citizenship and citizen-centric services. It endeavours to achieve excellence by not just providing a well-rounded legal education but also advancing legal scholarship, engaging in capacity building, serving the public and fostering justice.

About the Programme

This faculty development programme is designed to empower faculties, researchers, and legal professionals by delving into the intricacies of the recently enacted legislations: Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita 2023, and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam 2023, which replace the Indian Penal Code 1860, Code of Criminal Procedure 1973, and Indian Evidence Act 1872, respectively. With a focus on comprehensive understanding, procedural dynamics, and evidentiary shifts, the programme aims to provide participants with a holistic view of the legal landscape.

Through expert-led sessions, panel discussions, and interactive workshops spanning 01-week, attendees will gain practical insights, fostering interdisciplinary discussions and enabling them to apply the new laws in real-world scenarios. By inviting eminent legal scholars, practitioners, and policymakers, the programme ensures diverse perspectives, enriching the learning experience. The program acts as a vibrant forum for thought leadership, equipping participants to successfully navigate and make a significant contribution to the altered legal environment created by the three new criminal statutes.

The objectives of this programme are as follows:

- To focus on a comprehensive understanding of the new criminal laws
- To know about the social implications of new criminal laws
- To understand the role of the new criminal laws in overcoming the loopholes and difficulties faced by the existing criminal justice system
- To comprehend the new criminal laws with the Viksit Bharat @ 2047 vision
- To improve teaching strategies for faculty members through detailed examination of each new law
- To enable legal professionals to advance their practical knowledge in response to the changing legal environment
- To encourage researchers to identify areas requiring further investigation within the evolving legal framework
