OVERVIEW

The theme encompasses the intersection of law, social transformation, and sustainable development. It underscores the pivotal role of legal frameworks and innovation in driving societal change towards sustainable futures. Topics could include the evolution of legal systems to address the environment challenges, the role human rights in sustainable development, the promotion of green economies through legal mechanisms, and the empowerment of marginalized communities through legal advocacy of sustainability. The conference can explore how legal innovation can effectively navigate and complex landscape of social transformation, fostering collaboration among legal experts, policymakers, activists, and scholars to pave the way for more equitable, resilient, and sustainable world. We at Alliance University, School of Law, have always strived to achieve excellence in Legal Research, hence, organizing the 3rd International Conference on Law and Social Transformation – ICLS-2024 under the main theme 'The Contemplation of Law and Sustainable Development Goals' on September 28, 2024, and this would be an annual endeavor in the years to come.
