About the Journal:

The Centre for Transparency and Accountability in Governance, National Law University Delhi, welcomes contributions for the 11th Edition of the International Journal of Transparency and Accountability in Governance (Double Blind Reviewed & Refereed Journal) from students, academicians, activists, professionals and other stakeholders involved in the fight for the freedom of information across the globe.

The research paper should apply research skills and appropriate research methodology. The research paper should be thematic, and identifying sub-themes is highly appreciated. It should have good research questions and should also reflect the findings. The submission can be sent under the following category:

1. Research papers: Between 5000 and 10000 words, including footnotes. Papers in this category are expected to engage with the theme comprehensively, examine the literature thoroughly, and offer an innovative reassessment of the current understanding of that theme. It is advisable, though not necessary, to choose a theme that is of contemporary importance. Purely theoretical pieces are also welcomed. (ordinarily Not More Than 15 Pages)
2. Experts Comments: Between 2000 and 3000 words, including footnotes. This section should include a thought-provoking and innovative piece consisting chiefly of personal opinions and analysis (3 to 5 Pages)
3. Judgment Analysis/ Comments: Between 2000 and 4000 words, including footnotes. This part should analyse contemporary Indian or International judicial pronouncements relevant to the themes. It must identify and examine the line of cases in which the decision in question came about and comment on implications for the evolution of that branch of law. (5-10 Pages)

4. Book/Reports Review: The word limit is 2000- 3000 for the review of a book relevant to the themes. The study should identify the author's relevant arguments and present a comprehensive analysis. (3-5 Pages)
