

CALL FOR CHAPTERS IN EDITED BOOK ON CLINICAL LEGAL EDUCATION

Full Chapters Submission Deadline: 10th July 2024

Suggested Topics

Suggested topics include, but are by no means limited to:

- Clinical legal education and research – new opportunities
- Filling the justice gap: the role of clinics
- New and innovative models for clinical legal education
- The role of clinical legal education in enhancing student employability
- To what extent can clinical legal education incorporate legal theory as well as legal practice?
- Practitioner views on clinical legal education
- Role of legal Aid committee in Justice System
- Where is clinical legal education located within broader discussions of access to justice in India ?
- As legal education as a whole faces a shifting landscape, where is clinical legal education located now and in the future?
- How do clinics “locate” themselves within the communities and places where they exist?
- How should clinic lawyers and students think about our place as advocates for marginalized members of communities and our place within the larger legal community?
- The Emergence, Growth and Sustainability of Clinical Legal Education Programmes
- Learning from Best Practice: International Clinical Perspectives
- Covid 19 effect on clinical legal education

Submission Procedure:

Zero tolerance to Plagiarism (similarity index should be less than 10%)

Length of Full Manuscript: The length of paper, including references should be in between 4000-8000 words.

Blue-book 19th edition citation style should be followed strictly.

Each Paper submission must have a separate front Sheet continuing the following information, mentioning. Title,

Names of Author(s), Organization, Affiliation/Position(s), Address, E-mail, Sub-areas and Submission Type.

Full length paper must be sent via E-mail to :
ratheemahak@gmail.com

Book will be published by August- September 2024