

Call for Law Research Scholars and Editor for a Comprehensive Research Book on the Constitution of India

We are excited to announce a unique opportunity for law research scholars and an editor to contribute to a comprehensive research book series on the Constitution of India. This project aims to compile each Article of the Constitution with references to relevant judgments of the Supreme Court and High Courts, as well as all 106 amendments.

Project Overview:

- Title: Comprehensive Research Book on the Constitution of India
- Content: Detailed analysis of each Article of the Constitution, relevant Supreme Court and High Court judgments, and all 106 amendments.
- Volumes: 10 to 15 volumes, each roughly 500 pages.
- Team: 5 Law Research Scholars and 1 Editor
- Platform: VakilaAI (provided free of charge)

Roles and Responsibilities:

1. Law Research Scholars (5 Positions):

- Conduct thorough research on assigned Articles of the Constitution.
- Use the VakilaAI platform to obtain relevant paragraphs/pages of Supreme Court and High Court judgments.
- Analyze and document the implications of all amendments.
- Ensure accuracy, comprehensiveness, and clarity in the documentation.

2. Editor (1 Position):

- Oversee the work of the 5 research scholars.
- Ensure consistency, accuracy, and quality across all volumes.
- Provide feedback and guide scholars to maintain high research standards.
- Compile and edit the final manuscript for publication.

Compensation:

- Each Research Scholar will receive 10% of the royalty amount from book sales.
- The Editor will receive 20% of the royalty amount from book sales.

Qualifications:

1. Research Scholars:

- Advanced degree in Law (LLM, PhD preferred).
- Strong research and analytical skills.

- Familiarity with the Constitution of India and relevant case law.
- Proven ability to work independently and meet deadlines.
- Excellent written communication skills.

2. Editor:

- Advanced degree in Law (LLM or PhD preferred).
- Extensive experience in legal research and editing.
- Strong leadership and organizational skills.
- Proven track record of overseeing and completing large research projects.
- Exceptional attention to detail and commitment to quality.

How to Apply: Interested candidates are invited to submit the following documents:

- A cover letter outlining your interest in the project and relevant experience.
- A detailed CV highlighting your qualifications and previous work.
- Two samples of previous research work (preferably related to constitutional law).

Please send your applications to naveen@patodiainfo.com by 31st July 2024. Shortlisted candidates will be contacted for an interview.

This endeavor offers a unique opportunity to contribute to a landmark study of our nation's foundational document. By participating, you'll not only advance constitutional scholarship but also establish yourself as a respected voice in legal research. Your insights could shape future interpretations and discussions of India's constitutional framework, making this a truly career-defining opportunity. We look forward to embarking on this significant journey of legal exploration and analysis together.

For any queries, please contact naveen@patodiainfo.com

Note: All the selected candidates will have access to the VakilAI platform free of charge to facilitate their research and collaboration. The platform will provide relevant paragraphs/pages of the Supreme Court and High Court judgments once the complete Article of the Constitution is given, greatly aiding in the research process.

Thank you for your interest and we look forward to your valuable contributions.
