ABOUT NUSRL

NUSRL has been established by an Act of the State Legislature prompted by the vision of the constitutional forefathers that the law, legal system and legal institutions have an overarching role for the human, social, political and economic development of the nation. Law is one of the social processes having the maximum filtering capacity of societal processes is sinew for healthier growth of democracy and constitutional rule of law.

India in the 21st century and beyond having a rich heritage of legal culture, thoughts and traditions need to tread the path where the law has to act as a catalyst in achieving the goals enshrined in the Constitution as well as see India amid one in the galaxy of a developed nation. For achieving these goals enshrined in the Constitution and law being an instrument in achieving these goals needs a new perspective for its understanding, dissemination and structural innovations. Therefore, for the last two decades, a new awakening of the thrust has been given to the study of law and its constitution by establishing National Law Universities. NUSRL obviously has been crafted to develop a new and progressive orientation towards legal studies, its institutions and its relationship with other sciences.

Encapsulated in its objectives, the NUSRL is established to develop a holistic perspective of legal education in all its ramifications, particularly advocacy, judicial and legal institutional services, legislation, law reforms and all the research in these areas. The social and political milieu at present requires an interdisciplinary approach for law and its knowledge and obviously in a globalized world comparative analysis of the law and legal institutions cannot be avoided.

ABOUT CSRIPR

Centre for Study and Research in Intellectual Property Right is one of the foremost centres of excellence in the realm of Intellectual Property Law in North India. This Centre was founded in response to an escalating need felt by scientists, lawyers, technologists and companies. The object was, and still is, to gain a thoughtful knowledge in patent, trademarks, design and copyright law. The CSRIPR wishes to gain a better insight and glimpse into new and evolving areas of intellectual property law (such as the protection of software, semi-conductor products and biotechnological inventions, standardisation and technology transfers) and the general problems of patents, trademarks, designs and copyright.

To concertize these objects the CSRIPR will organize a manifold of activities on an interdisciplinary level. These activities include fundamental research the gathering of documentation, organizing conferences and scientific service to the community. By virtue of numerous activities conducted over the course of time, CSRIPR has acquired an established reputation on the national as well as on the international level with students belonging to premier national and international institution joining us for an internship to gain perspective in this realm.

After the successful completion of the first edition of our internship during the month of February 2021 and in furtherance of our objective, CSRIPR has completed multiple internship programmes since then, and now, has come forward with the Fifth edition of its Internship for students of LAW, to help them acquire first-hand experience in the realm of IPR with any other stream integrated with it for the furtherance of knowledge.

ABOUT THE INTERNSHIP

This internship will revolve around one month and during the course of which students will be required to research nuances of Intellectual property law and other related fields in this realm.

Interns will be required to select a topic for their case study on topics related to IPR before the commencement of their internship. The nature of the topic is required to have a socio-legal aspect of IPR.

The selection criteria for the internship will consist of two round:

1. CV selection
2. Interview

After the concerned student has been shortlisted for the interview round, he/she is required to appear before the panel with his/her topic in which the applicant is interested. The panel will then deliberate on whether or not the selected topic is suitable for the internship. If found suitable the intern will be required to continue with it otherwise the topic shall be amended or the applicant shall be assigned a topic during the course of the interview itself.

P.S.: The topic submitted by the applicant should belong to only one single domain out of the aforementioned domains of Intellectual Property Law. Applicants will not be allowed to choose topics that belong to different domains.

The interns are to keep in mind that the topic selected by them for case study should be contemporary in nature.
