

शिक्षा मंत्रालय
MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

242506_10/08/2024_BNAIndia

Internship Call to Application 2024-25 by National Law Scholars Program (NLSP)

Opportunity Dates: Ongoing, any 6-weeks, August 11, 2024 – July 10, 2025

Location: Centre of Excellence for CLAT (Residential Campus, NLSP) at Noida & Hyderabad

Mode: In-person/Hybrid (all teaching must be conducted in person; a fully online internship option is not available)

About Us:

The National Law Scholars Program (NLSP) is an independent non-profit initiative by Bharat Navodaya Abhiyan (BNA), in collaboration with Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti (NVS) under the Ministry of Education, Government of India. We invite current law students and recent graduates to apply for internships.

NLSP recruits high school students from over 150+ selected districts across India, offering them a fully-funded 18-month residential program alongside their final years of schooling. The program includes modules on life skills, leadership, law college preparation, CLAT coaching, and 11th-12th class curriculum. Post-program, students receive guidance on college admissions, scholarships, on-campus support, internships, careers, and lifelong need-based assistance.

Internship Details:

We offer both full-time and part-time internship opportunities, where interns will engage in teaching and contribute to strategic matters within our Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity segment.

- Duration: Minimum 6 weeks between August 11, 2024, and July 10, 2025, based on the candidate's availability.
- Location: Interns will be placed at the Centre of Excellence in Noida or Hyderabad, depending on availability and the candidate's preference (free accommodation and food may be provided; staying on campus is not mandatory).
- Teaching Requirement: Interns must be fluent and able to teach and guide CLAT aspirants in at least two of the five components of the CLAT syllabus, dedicating a minimum of 3 hours per day.
- Full-Time Interns: Will also be assigned non-teaching strategic tasks, working directly with senior leadership.
- Part-Time Interns: Will focus exclusively on teaching, with a 3-hour daily commitment.
- Break: Interns will have one day off each week.

Eligibility:

- Current law students or recent graduates from NLUs.
- Must have appeared in CLAT and possess a solid understanding of the CLAT syllabus and current exam pattern.
- Passion for teaching and mentoring.
- Basic computer skills and access to a laptop.

Incentives:

- Certificate co-signed by the CEO, NLSP, and a representative of our government partner.
- One-time stipend of Rs. 10,000 for full-time, Rs. 5000 for part-time for an engagement of 6 weeks each selected candidate.
- Networking opportunities and potential for long-term association.
- Special recognition for top-performing interns.
- Possible pre-placement offer for a full-time fellowship/job at BNA.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates can apply by filling out the application form at <https://forms.gle/zS1RTaQDaXGcocpo8>

Queries may be addressed to apply@bnaindia.org

For more details about the NLSP, visit NLSP Residential Program website.

Join us in shaping the future of law aspirants from rural India!
