

EDITORS

DR. ASHU DHIMAN

Dr. Ashu Dhiman is an Assistant Professor at Vivekananda School of Law & Legal Studies, VIPS, New Delhi, with expertise in Criminal, Business, and Family Laws, and a strong focus on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). She is a published author, with notable works such as "Mediation Practices and Strategies"

MR. PARAM BHAMRA

Mr. Param Bhamra, Founding Partner at MediateGuru, is a seasoned expert in International Arbitration and a leading figure in ADR. He has authored over a dozen books, including "Mediation: Practices and Strategies in India" and "Arbitrating the Atmosphere," and actively contributes to legal education and the global ADR community.

SUBMISSION:

Interested authors are requested to submit an abstract of 300–500 words, providing a clear overview of the proposed chapter. The abstract should be accompanied by a brief biography of the author(s) and sent out to adrbooksubmission@gmail.com before or on 30th September 2024

KEY DATES

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION DEADLINE:

30th September 2024

NOTIFICATION OF ACCEPTANCE:

6th October 2024

FULL CHAPTER SUBMISSION DEADLINE:

1st November 2024

CO-AUTHORSHIP

Co-authorship is permitted for this publication, with a maximum of two authors per chapter. This allows for collaborative efforts while ensuring the clarity and cohesion of each contribution. Both authors must contribute meaningfully to the work and will be recognized equally in the publication.

Call for Chapters
KEY SUCCESS

IMPLICATIONS

MEDIATION
ACT 2023

SCOPE

This book seeks to provide a comprehensive examination of the Mediation Act 2023. We aim to curate a collection of scholarly works that will offer diverse perspectives on the Act's legal, social, economic, and ethical implications

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

- Abstract Submission: Interested authors are requested to submit an abstract of 300-500 words, providing a clear overview of the proposed chapter. The abstract should be accompanied by a brief biography of the author(s).
- Full Chapter Submission: Upon acceptance of the abstract, authors will be invited to submit a full chapter manuscript of 3,000-6,000 words. Submissions must adhere to the publisher's formatting and Bluebook 20th Edition Footnoting guidelines.
- Review Process: All submitted chapters will undergo a rigorous blind peer review process to ensure the highest standards of scholarship.

PUBLICATION FEES:

A nominal fee of INR 1000 per author is being levied to cover the publication charges. This fee includes the cost of Plagiarism and AI check, as well as producing and distributing the book. Additionally, each author will receive a hardcopy of the book as part of this fee, ensuring that every contributor has a physical copy of the published work for their records and personal use.

THEMES

Submissions are invited on a variety of topics, including:

- Legal Analysis: Examination of the Mediation Act 2023's provisions, judicial interpretations, and comparative studies of pre- and post-enactment mediation laws.
- Impact on Dispute Resolution: Analysis of changes in mediation practice, its role in various legal disputes, and case studies demonstrating practical effects.
- Access to Justice: The Act's impact on access to justice, especially for marginalized groups, and the effectiveness of mandatory mediation in reducing court caseloads.
- Ethical Standards: Discussion of ethical issues, mediator responsibilities, and implications for mediator training and accreditation.
- International Perspectives: Comparative analysis with global frameworks and implications for international and cross-border disputes.
- Socio-economic Impact: The Act's economic effects on businesses and its role in social cohesion and dispute resolution across various sectors.

CALL FOR CHAPTERS

Implications of the Mediation Act 2023

The enactment of the Mediation Act 2023 marks a pivotal moment in the evolution of dispute resolution frameworks. This legislation introduces substantial changes aimed at enhancing the efficacy, accessibility, and fairness of mediation processes. To explore the profound implications of this Act, we invite scholars, legal practitioners, and professionals to contribute to an edited volume that will serve as a critical resource for understanding the Act's impact across various sectors and jurisdictions.