National Conference on Corporate Social Responsibility (NCCSR)

“Aligning CSR with SDGs”

Mark your calendars for the IICA's National Conference on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), commemorating 2nd October as Annual IICA CSR Day to honor Mahatma Gandhi's Trusteeship philosophy. Under the theme, "Aligning CSR with Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)", this event promises to bring together corporate leaders, NGOs, government officials, sustainability professionals, and other key stakeholders to explore innovative CSR solutions.

Key Objectives

1. Explore possible solutions from Corporates to address existing challenges in achieving sustainable development goals.
2. Identify needs for decentralized local-level planning, execution and measurement of CSR interventions aligned with SDGs.
3. Promote best practices in aligning CSR with SDGs.
4. Recommend future course of action for different stakeholders and thematic sectors for policy initiatives and piloting the innovation.

Event Highlights

- Multi-stakeholder Panel Discussions
- Leadership Talks by experts in CSR and sustainable development
- Exhibition on CSR-SDG Best Practices showcasing exemplary corporate initiatives
