

CHANDIGARH UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW

CALL FOR PAPERS

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

Chandigarh University Law Review (CULR) is a peer reviewed Journal published bi-annually. The Journal seeks to provide a platform to academicians, practitioners, research scholars, and students to contribute in multi-disciplinary discussions on the themes of law, justice, and society. The Editorial Board of the Journal welcomes the submission of unpublished original research papers for its inaugural issue (Vol. I, Issue I, 2024).

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

1. All manuscripts must be accompanied by:

- a. A covering letter with the name(s) of the author(s), official designation, institution/affiliation, the title of the manuscript and contact information (correspondence address, e-mail, phone number, etc.).
- b. A Certificate that the paper submitted is a piece of original and bona fide research work and has not been published or being considered for publication elsewhere.
- c. Similarity Index (Plagiarism) Report from recognized Software (Turnitin). The acceptable Similarity Index is up to 10%.

2. Contributions should be in English language only and in conformity with Chandigarh University Law Review's (CULR) scheme and style.

3. Submissions should be made only through e-mail in PDF and MS Word Formats.

4. Footnotes and citations should strictly conform to the Indian Law Institute (ILI) pattern, failing which the paper shall not be considered for peer review.

5. The submission of papers is open only for Academicians, Practitioners, Ph.D. Research Scholars, and LL.M. students. Undergraduate law students can make the submission only as co-authors.

6. Co-authorship is allowed up to two co-authors. Hence there can be a maximum of three authors (1 author and 2 co-authors).
7. No biographical information or references, including the name(s) of the author(s), affiliation(s) and acknowledgements should be included in the text of the manuscript, footnotes, or document properties. All such information must be incorporated in the covering letter accompanying the manuscript.
8. The word limit for Research Papers is between 4000 (minimum) to 8000 words (maximum). The word limit is inclusive of footnotes. The word limit must be strictly adhered to.
9. The articles in the Journal shall be edited and published according to the orthographical and grammatical rules of British English.
10. In case of references from websites, complete URL address, along with the last date of accessing the website should be mentioned.
11. Manuscripts shall be assessed by subjection to Blind Peer Review Procedure. Reviewers shall not be informed of the author's name, institution, designation, or any other personal information.
12. Copy right of all entries received shall exclusively vest with the Chandigarh University Law Review (CULR). The submission of work would imply that the contributor has assigned such rights to CULR on its publication in the journal.
15. Authors are required to obtain written permission for the use of any copyrighted material in the manuscript and must communicate the same to the Editorial Board. Such material may include tables, charts, graphs, reports, etc.
16. In case the manuscript is not published, the author shall be intimated through e-mail and he/she may then send it for publication elsewhere.
17. Mere submission of a contribution shall not confer any claim for publication. The Editorial Board reserves all rights to take decision to publish the contribution or not. The Board's decision as regards the interpretation of guidelines or any other matter related to the publication shall be final.
18. Soft copy of the contributions should be emailed to at culr@cumail.in

19. On receipt of the manuscript, the Editorial Board shall screen it to satisfy itself about the conformity of the manuscript with the CULR terms, conditions, and policy.

20. A manuscript recommended by the referee as fit for publication with necessary amendments (if any), shall be considered for publication after the author submits the amended paper accordingly. The author will be given one week to carry out the suggested changes.
