About

IDIA

Increasing Diversity by Increasing Access (IDIA) is a non-profit organization that aims to empower underprivileged and marginalized children by giving them access to quality legal education, in a bid to enhance the diversity in law schools across India. To this end, IDIA sensitizes students from across the country to pursue law as a career option; selects underprivileged and marginalized students with an aptitude for law; trains them, and provides scholarships to the students to gain admission to law schools. Conceptualized in 2010 as the brainchild of Late Prof. (Dr.) Shamnad Basheer, IDIA has since expanded to over 1000 volunteers across 20+ states.

The IDIA MP Chapter is run by the students of the National Law Institute University, Bhopal. With over 90 volunteers, IDIA MP has been proactive in training the students for various law entrance exams.

IDIA undertakes various functions including organizing fundraising events, and conducting sensitizations across the state of MP, thereby reaffirming IDIA's commitment to social responsibility and promoting access to legal education.
