

About the Organisers

IILM Law School is a pathway, not just to the legal profession, but for many leadership roles in society. The Law School offers five-year undergraduate programmes in B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) And B.A. LL.B. (Hons.), as well as a one-year postgraduate LL.M. programme. The learning environment is conducive to the development of well-rounded lawyers and legal practitioners, as it is intellectually Stimulating, forward-looking, and professionally supportive. IILM Law School offers a blend of fundamental courses and a wide range of electives to allow students to tailor their curriculum according to their interests. The skill of writing and the art of presentation are the two defining characters of Excellence in the field of law. Legal writing is an activity that combines these two Elements and considering the same, IILM Law School has established a Centre of Excellence for Legal Writing that hone the writing and research skills of the students. The Centre conducts various activities like article writing, judgment analysis, essay Competitions, research workshops etc.

Details of the event

In an era of rapid globalization, technological advancements, and evolving social dynamics, the legal landscape is constantly being reshaped. The 21st century presents unprecedented challenges and opportunities that call for innovative legal thinking and robust frameworks to uphold justice, equity, and the rule of law. To encourage critical engagement with these evolving issues, CELW proposes to organise an Essay Writing Competition that invites students and scholars to delve into the intricacies of contemporary legal challenges in higher education in India specifically in light of the Constitutional Law. The theme of the competition is a part of "संविधान से भारत: 75 Years of Democracy and Justice" to commemorate 75 years of the Constitution of India, a series of events launched by IILM Law School, Gurugram.
