

George Washington University Law School
International and Comparative Law Program (ICL)
Fellowship Announcement

Academic Title: Visiting Associate Professor of Law and International and Comparative Law Program Fellow

Rank: Visiting Associate Professor

Discipline: Law

Contract Type: Visiting, Renewable Appointment

Proposed Start Date: 7/1/2025

Full-Time/Part-Time: Full-Time

Position Description Summary:

The George Washington University Law School seeks applications for a twelve-month graduate fellowship, specializing in International and Comparative Law, beginning on July 1st, 2025, with the possibility of renewal for a second year. The Fellow will have the title of Visiting Associate Professor of Law.

Fellows receive an annual stipend of $70,000, health insurance, tuition remission benefits, and other benefits associated with a full-time position at GW.

Specific Duties and Responsibilities:

The Fellow will be expected to support the International and Comparative Law (ICL) Program in a range of administrative duties. These will include supporting: (i) the organization of lectures, colloquia, conferences, events, and receptions; (ii) the administration of the Legal, Research, and Writing Program for international LL.M. students; (iii) the administration of the summer GW Law-Oxford Human Rights Law program; (iv) the marketing strategy, publicity efforts, and social media presence of the ICL program, including updating the program's website information; and (v) advising students regarding LL.M. and J.D. concentrations and careers in International and Comparative Law, among other tasks related to the Program. The Fellow additionally will support the recruitment efforts of J.D. and LL.M. students to GW Law School. The Fellow will have the opportunity to engage in research and writing related to the work of the Program in the fields of International and Comparative law and to seek to publish that work. The Fellow may also assist in teaching courses within the International and Comparative Law curriculum.

Minimum Qualifications

We are seeking applications from candidates who have:

- a J.D. or LL.M. degree with coursework related to International and Comparative Law
- strong administrative, academic, writing, and research skills

Special Instructions to Applicants

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis until the position is filled. Applicants should email a letter of interest, a resume/C.V., a list of references, and a complete law school transcript to Rosa Celorio, Associate Dean for International and Comparative Legal Studies, Rcelorio@law.gwu.edu. If necessary, applications can be mailed to Rosa Celorio, Associate Dean for International and Comparative Legal Studies, 2000 H Street, NW, Washington, DC 20052.

Background Screening: Successful completion of a background screening will be required as a condition of hire.

Request Accommodations: If you are a qualified individual with a disability or a disabled veteran, you may request a reasonable accommodation if you are unable or limited in your ability to access job openings or to apply for a job on this site as a result of your disability. You can request reasonable accommodations by contacting The Equal Employment Office and Employee Relations) by email at eeo@gwu.edu, by phone at 202-994-9656, or by fax at 202-994-9658.

EEO Statement: The University is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer that does not unlawfully discriminate in any of its programs or activities on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or on any other basis prohibited by applicable law.

Applicant Documents (Required Documents)

- 1) Cover Letter
- 2) Curriculum Vita/Resume
- 3) Contact Information for References
- 4) Complete Law School Transcript