ABOUT THE JOURNAL

Dharmashastra National Law University–Student Law Journal (DNLU-SLJ) is a peer-reviewed, student-run academic journal that endeavours to advance rigorous research spanning across various facets of law such as comparative, global and transdisciplinary perspectives. As a flagship initiative of DNLU, the journal was conceptualized to provide a distinctive platform for expressing opinions, thoughts and views of the student fraternity by publications in the form of scholarly articles, research papers, book reviews and case comments.

It is steered by an editorial board and an advisory board comprising eminent jurists. The Patron-in-Chief of the Journal is Hon'ble Shri Justice Suresh Kumar Kait, Chief Justice, Madhya Pradesh High Court. Free from ideological constraints and inclusive of perspectives beyond the DNLU student community, the Journal welcomes scholarly contributions from interdisciplinary domains of law. Its mission is to unite legal and allied scholars in redefining the boundaries of the legal system through innovative approaches to pressing legal and extra-legal concerns.

The Journal's mandate entails fostering active participation of students in academic research endeavours by establishing rigorous standards such as strict adherence to ethical guidelines including those governing plagiarism, data accuracy, etc. to ensure quality readership and a broader outreach.

After the successful launch and publication of DNLU-SLJ, Volume 1, Volume 2 & Volume 3 which was a result of meticulous conceptualization and consultations, intellectual discussions and free exchange of ideas, DNLU-SLJ strives to emerge as a leading forum for students and academicians to engage in discussions on varied subjects of contemporary significance. The journal seeks to achieve newer and greater heights and keep the spirit of legal scepticism alive.
