Two Day Seminar on 75 Years of the Supreme Court of India

CONCEPT NOTE

As the Supreme Court of India completes 75 years since its establishment in 1950, this seminar aims to reflect on its transformative journey in shaping the legal, political, and social fabric of the country. The Supreme Court has not only interpreted the Constitution but has also evolved as a dynamic institution safeguarding democracy and ensuring justice.

This seminar will critically examine key judgments and their impact on constitutional jurisprudence, human rights, and socio-economic reforms. Discussions will explore the Court's role in maintaining a balance between judicial activism and judicial restraint, adapting to the challenges of technology, and addressing contemporary issues in various domains such as intellectual property, education, and individual liberties.

The event will provide a platform for scholars, academicians, and practitioners to deliberate on the future trajectory of the Supreme Court in maintaining its role as the guardian of constitutional values and a catalyst for progressive change.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SEMINAR

- 1.To analyze the impact of landmark judgments delivered by the Supreme Court over the past 75 years.
- 2.To explore the evolving role of the judiciary in addressing emerging socio-economic and technological challenges.
