Universiti Malaya Law Conference 2025

'Panel 2: Artificial Intelligence and Platform Power: The Way Forward"

> ### EXTENDED ABSTRACT COMPETITION NOW CONVERTED INTO AN ARTICLE WRITING COMPETITION!

The UM Postgraduate Law Society is hosting the annual Universiti Malaya Law Conference on 13th September 2025. This Conference aims to provide a platform for scholars, early-career researchers and postgraduate students to engage with the legal challenges in a changing world order, where rapid advancements in AI and the growing power of digital platforms have begun to impact the law.

We welcome original research articles that examine the implications of AI and platform power to society and the law. The scope of this Conference includes, but is not limited to, the following topics:

- Competition Law
- Role/Responsibilities of Multinational Corporations
- Dispute Resolution
- Consumer Protection
- AI & Platform: The Interplay Between Politics, Economics And Social Justice
- Contracting With AI Tools: New Power Dynamics, New Risks, New Terms
- Opportunities And Challenges Of AI & Intellectual Property
- Data Privacy And AI-Powered Platforms
- Regulating AI And Platform Power: The Way Forward

We invite interested authors to submit a manuscript by 5 pm on 30 August 2025 via email to umpgls@gmail.com and leemeifei@um.edu.my. The manuscript should comply with the guidelines in this link: https://ejournal.um.edu.my/index.php/JMCL/about/submissions. The manuscript should also include the extended abstract according to the Template provided, and include the author(s)' names, affiliation, and email address. We expect all papers to be in the English language. If possible, manuscripts have not been previously published or under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Please note that selected papers will be uploaded and shared with participants of the UMLC 2025. Awards, including a speaking opportunity at the UMLC 2025 and/or publishing opportunity with the Journal of Malaysian and Comparative Law, will be given to author(s) with outstanding papers. Selected speaker(s) will be expected to make their own travel arrangements. For further information, please get in touch with us at umpgls@gmail.com or Cynthia Lee at leemeifei@um.edu.my. Good luck, and we look forward to receiving your submissions.

ABSTRACT

Topic for this Extended Abstract Competition is "AI and Platform Power: The Way Forward" for the UMLC 2025 "Challenges in a Changing World Order'. The abstract is a summary of the paper that gives readers a basic understanding of the research. The abstract should include the problem statement, research objectives, methodology, key findings, and recommendations or conclusions drawn from the study. The extended abstract should be submitted together with the full paper. While the full paper should comply with the JMLC manuscript guidelines, the extended abstract should be submitted in A4-sized paper, typed in font size 12, single-spaced, in a single column, with wide margins. The extended abstract should not exceed 1,500 words (including abstract). The necessary sections in the extended abstract comprise Introduction, Methodology, Results and Discussion, Conclusion, Acknowledgement (optional) and References. Put your abstract here. Use single spacing and do not exceed 300 words.

Keywords: 4 - 6 Keywords

Introduction
The introduction section should introduce the problem to be studied, briefly literature review, and provide the main findings of the work.

Methodology
The methodology of the research should be clearly explained in this section.

Results and Discussion
The main results of the work should be presented and discussed. Tables and figures can be used to assist with the explanation.

Conclusion
Conclusions should state concisely the most important propositions of the paper as well as the author's views of the practical implications of the results.

Acknowledgement (optional)
Acknowledgement can be included in identifying the funding sources

References
The references are not counted in the word limit. Proper references must be included throughout the text, and the list of references must be provided in this section. The list of references must follow the AGLC style.
