The faculty comprises renowned academicians, retired judges, senior advocates, and research scholars who bring academic rigour and real-world insights into the classroom. Emphasising interdisciplinary learning, constitutional values, and innovation in pedagogy, Amity Law School is dedicated to nurturing the next generation of lawyers, leaders, and changemakers.

Located at the vibrant Bengaluru campus, ALSB is equipped with state-of-the-art infrastructure, digital libraries, and court-like learning spaces that facilitate comprehensive legal education. Through initiatives like this National Conclave, the school continues to shape intellectual discourse and encourage student-led academic contributions.

About Law Conclave

The National Conclave on Law, Gender, and Society, hosted by Amity Law School, Amity University Bengaluru, on September 19, 2025, is a premier academic gathering that seeks to explore the critical intersections of legal discourse, gender justice, and societal transformation in the 21st century. As global and national conversations on equality, identity, and human rights evolve amidst rapid socio-political and technological changes, this conclave offers a vital platform for scholarly engagement, policy dialogue, and interdisciplinary reflection.

The conclave aspires to bring together a diverse cross-section of stakeholders including jurists, gender rights advocates, legal practitioners, policy-makers, academics, research scholars, and students to deliberate on the structural, cultural, and legal challenges surrounding gender, law and society. The event is designed to provoke critical thought and foster constructive discussions on how law shapes, reinforces, or challenges gendered experiences across diverse social contexts.

Key Highlights of the conclave include

- Plenary sessions and expert panel discussions featuring leading voices in law, gender studies, and social policy
- Research paper presentations on contemporary issues related to law, gender equality, identity politics, and inclusion
- Interactive forums on topics such as intersectionality, gender-based violence, LGBTQIA+ rights, and legal empowerment
- Debates on legal reforms, feminist jurisprudence, and the role of institutions in advancing gender justice
- Opportunities for young scholars and students to engage with mentors, researchers, and social changemakers

This conclave encourages contributions that are both scholarly and socially impactful, challenging existing paradigms and proposing actionable ideas. Through its Call for Papers, the event invites interdisciplinary and practice-oriented submissions that highlight field experiences, policy critiques, and legal innovations addressing gender-related issues.

Thematic Areas Of Submission

Participants are invited to submit original and unpublished research papers that align with the central theme “Law, Gender, and Society”. Submissions may explore theoretical, empirical, doctrinal, or policy-based approaches and must demonstrate academic rigor, originality, and relevance.
