

Virtual Internship

The Asian Centre for International Arbitration and Mediation (ACIAM) is pleased to announce that it is now accepting applications for the ACIAM Virtual Internship Programme.

The programme will provide valuable insight into working at a leading global ADR Centre, albeit virtually, and will help you gain a better understanding of the role and function of the Secretariat.

During your time with ACIAM, you will have an opportunity to contribute to ACIAM's work, including assisting the Secretariat with research projects on various topics. You will also work on mock cases inspired by real life ACIAM cases, and receive feedback from members of the Secretariat. The internship programme is open for Vizag, Vijayawada, Hyderabad & Delhi people.

Details on how to apply for the programme are set out below:

Duration of Internship

The internship will be for a fixed period of three months, on a part-time basis. You will contribute 10 hours of work each week, unless otherwise agreed. Please indicate (as specifically as possible) your (i) period of availability; and (ii) preferred dates.

Term Schedule

Batch 1 – October to December 2025

Batch 2 – January to March 2026

Remuneration

The internship is not remunerated.

Eligibility

This programme is being offered only to students currently enrolled in an undergraduate or post graduate programme. The internship is conducted in a virtual format from Vishakhapatnam (India). You are required to ensure that you have complied with your university's / college's policies and/or the relevant government regulations, if any, to undertake this virtual internship from your current country of residence and/or other relevant jurisdictions.

Application Package

- (i) curriculum vitae;
- (ii) copies of your college/university and/or postgraduate transcripts;
- (iii) statement of interest describing your objectives and motivation in applying for the programme;
- (iv) a letter issued by your college/university confirming you are accepted to or enrolled with the college/university, and your participation in ACIAM's virtual internship programme does not violate the university's policies and the relevant government regulations, if any, of your current country of residence and/or other relevant jurisdictions; and
- (v) letter(s) of reference and writing sample(s) (optional).

Contact Details

Please submit your applications to info@aciamindia.com

Only successful candidates will be notified.