CALL FOR PAPERS – CHOTANAGPUR LAW JOURNAL

(VOLUME 17)

ISSN-0973-5858

The Chotanagpur Law Journal is a peer-review Journal published by Chotanagpur Law College, Ranchi invites submissions for Volume XVII, from scholars, academicians, legal practitioners, and students. The journal aims to publish original, high-quality articles offering in-depth analysis, insights, and discussions on contemporary legal issues.

ABOUT CHOTANAGPUR LAW COLLEGE, RANCHI

The Chotanagpur Law College, Ranchi was established in 1954. It is registered under section 2 (f)& 12(B) of the UGC Act 1956 and it is also accredited with B++ from National Assessment & Accreditation Council (NAAC). With the recent conferment of autonomous status by UGC, the institution now enjoys greater academic freedom to design its curriculum, introduce innovative teaching methods, and strengthen its role as a pioneer in legal education in Jharkhand. It also holds the distinction of being one of the oldest and most esteemed legal institutions in Jharkhand. Initially it was affiliated with Bihar University, and later became permanently affiliated with Ranchi University, Ranchi. Devoted to justice delivery, legal education and research, as well as judicial reforms, the college focuses on serving marginalized communities and aims to provide a comprehensive education that instills both human and spiritual values. Beyond the physical construction of concrete, iron, stone, bricks, and mortar, the college stands as a testament to the unwavering dedication, sacrifice, and generosity of Late Barrister S. K. Sahay, as well as countless individuals who have devoted themselves to delivering the highest quality education to the tribal region. Its inception was driven by faith, hope, and love, with a foundation built upon principles of discipline, scholarship, and service. Over the years, the college's alumni have achieved remarkable success in the legal field nationwide.
