About the Law Review

The Shimla Law Review is envisioned to be an annual publication, owned and published by the HPNLU, Shimla. The periodical is intended to provide a forum to the judges, professors, research scholars, and students for exposition on contemporary legal issues, apart from the traditional challenges that the legal paraphernalia comes across. SLR finds its genesis in the backdrop that the role of an institution is beyond the traditional classroom interaction. It includes deliberations that can affect the society in multifarious ways and support the progressive values that are imbibed in the Constitution. SLR is an all-encompassing journal and promotes contributions on multiple facets of the legal regime owing to its ever-evolving width. In essence, the work of scholarship involves criticizing, revising the existing quantum of information, concepts, values, methods, and throwing new light in the darkness of unknown. The topography where the University is located resembles the terrains of law and provides the most conducive opportunity for a publication such as SLR that dwells deeper into the realms and nuances of these terrains of the conception and practices of law and legal system.

The papers published in its previous volumes have received accolade from academicians at home and abroad, bar & bench alike. Papers published in Shimla Law Review has been chosen as one of the best fifty-one papers published in English, under peer reviewed journals from across the world, in the decade, 2010-2020, by Cross Examination Debate Association, the United States. Some of the papers published in its previous Volumes have found place amongst the most downloaded papers in the category of 'jurisprudence and theoretical inquiry' from the SSRN database. SLR has also been cited by Prof. I. P. Massey in his book on Administrative Law.
