

Call for Papers: ILS Law Review [Volume XII, Issue 2 (September) 2026]:

Paper submissions are invited for ILS Law Review, Volume XII, Issue 2 (September) 2026. The last date of submission is April 25.

About the Institute

The Indian Institute of Legal Studies acknowledged as one of the best law colleges in India, was established in the year 2010. The institute is settled in the cradle of the quaint Himalayas and picturesque surroundings, assimilating nature and education, a combination that is a rarity in itself.

About the Journal

A cardinal requirement of an academic life is the exchange of intellectual ideas and the expression of opinions. The Indian Institute of Legal Studies has provided such a platform in the form of ILS Law Review, with an ISSN Number 2320-5318. It is a peer-reviewed journal acclaimed for original ideas and academic honesty. The Journal is currently soliciting submissions for Volume XII, Issue 2 (SEPTEMBER) 2026.

Nature of Contributions

- Articles: An article must conduct a complete analysis of the area of law, which the author seeks to highlight. It must contain a comprehensive study of the existing law with the suggestions and conclusions of the Author. Word Limit being 4,000 to 6,000 words.
- Notes: A note is a relatively concise form of an argument advanced by the author. The focus of a note should be on a relatively new debate or controversy regarding the interpretation or implementation in the law. Notes shall primarily highlight contemporary issues, which need to be addressed, and the authors are expected to offer a solution. The maximum word limit for a manuscript in the form of note is 2,500 words.
- Comments: A comment is where the author may decide to critique any recent/landmark judicial pronouncement or any recent legislation or bill before the Parliament or State Legislature. The word limit for a comment is 2,500 words.
- Book Review: A Book Review is where the author identifies the central idea of the book, gives the reader indication of the author's style, approach, or premises, and then offers an overall evaluation adding suggestions and latest amendments to the given laws in the book. The word limit is from 1800-2000 words.
